

The search for gold in the Sierra Nevada could be more lucrative to local anglers

Gold-Tagged Trout in Lake McClure now worth $500

For Immediate Release: Aug. 2, 2016

Contact: Mike Jensen

209-722-5761

Fishing at Lakes McClure and McSwain could net anglers even bigger bucks.

Earlier this year, 10 trout with golden tags were planted in Lakes McClure and McSwain.

Five fish remain in Lake McClure. Initially worth $250 each, any Gold Tagged Trout caught in Lake McClure will now be worth $500. One fish remains in Lake McSwain and will be still be worth $250.

As before, anglers who fetch a gold-tagged trout will be listed on the MID Parks website and Facebook pages. Updates will continue to be provided on the number of fish caught and the number of fish still waiting to be caught. Complete information can be found here.

All winners must have a valid California Fishing License in their possession. Children 15 and under do not require a CA Fishing License.

Prize awards will be paid by check within 30 days of a validated catch.

Lakes McClure and McSwain are open for day-use and camping. For more information visit lakemcclure.com or like us on the Lake McSwain and Lake McClure Facebook pages. A complete set of rules and information for the Gold Tagged Trout promotion can be found here.

###

